Dear Mr. Secretary:

Governors oppose statutory changes in the House and Senate Department of Defense authorization bills to federalize the National Guard during emergencies and disasters. Provisions in both the House and Senate bills to expand the President's authority over the National Guard during natural and manmade disasters were developed without consultation with governors and encroach on our constitutional authority to protect the citizens of our states.

Fifty-one governors recently sent a letter to Congress opposing Section 511 of the House-passed bill because it would usurp the authority of governors to command the National Guard in response to a "serious natural or manmade disaster." Since then, governors also have become increasingly concerned with the Senate's proposal to expand the President's authority to intervene in a state under the Insurrection Act (Section 1042) and proposals to federalize disaster response through the use of reserve forces. Each of these proposals represents a dramatic expansion of federal authority during natural disasters that could cause confusion in the command-and-control of the National Guard and interfere with states' ability to respond to natural disasters within their borders.

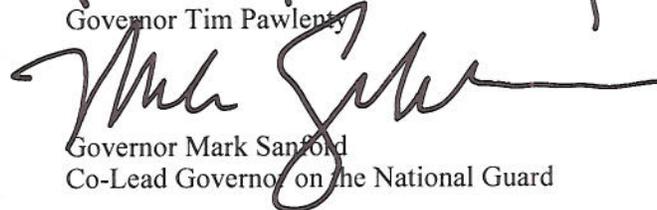

As we reiterated during our meeting with you in February, any issue that affects the mission of the Guard in the states must be addressed in consultation and coordination with governors. The role of the Guard in the states and to the nation as a whole is too important to have major policy decisions made without full debate and input from governors throughout the policy process.

Governors welcome the opportunity to improve the nation's disaster response capabilities, but we must work together to ensure that any changes do not hinder our ability to respond to those in need. We therefore urge you to join us in calling for the House and Senate to remove Section 511 of the House bill and Section 1042 of the Senate bill from the final conference report.

Sincerely,

Governor Janet Napolitano
